Mrs. S. N. M. Chairmen

Dear Sirs,

If you are the only bidder on a lot—or are the first one are you not? In such cases the bids stand unless they are excessively high. I do not think your bids can come under this class, on the contrary I think they were low. The Clay medal cost me $1.00 & that is as low as I could can & sell it at present.

I enclose the numbers in 47th Sale as per your request.

Very Truly Yours
H. E. Morey

Dear Sirs

I return per express the Greek coins that remain unsold. As I wrote you the party for whom I respectfully ordered them, cleared out for Europe before I could show them, & they have remained intact until last month, when two other parties began to nibble on them. I have an offer in my safe that they wished me to hold for them, & next week if they do not show up I will remit for all I have retained. I suppose you sell Greek coins every day in the week, but I don't. Customers for Greek coins are few & far between.

Very Truly Yours H. E. Morey

No commission charges.
Satisfaction guaranteed or goods may be returned in 30 days.
Unknown parties required to furnish good references.
Bid so much PER PIECE, except when lot is mentioned.
All bids should be in on or before Dec. 25.

I try & give all parties concerned their just dues & that is all any one can do. In the matter of bidding that in mail auctions cannot be [illegible] as in public auctions for instance you can enforce a 10% rule or a 5 or 10 ct advance in public auction while in a regular auction — you can't expect any bid accepted only I must above auction. If the who live near will in the sales can hold an interested enough to work after their bids I'll retain them up to the last minute, why have them work the whole to. The only thing to do is to say in my terms bid the very highest you are willing to pay & terms the property will be given for highest & best bid,

Mr. J. W. Thakman

Dear Sir,

I enclose check & statement I rec'd as I see it.

On the same bill you have charged 10% Com. which you have not charged on Evans Auction bills & as we never charged this any commission, yours I am enclosing you in this as I don't see why you should do so.

You have always allowed me 10% Com. on consigned goods so was led to suppose same on these bills & can only add that in future if it is thought best to send the same net I shall be much pleased so.

Returning the unsold coins which you sent me a few days since & trusting you may be for it but as they do not will not hold it over Sep. This balances the Greek Consignment.

I know this has been long in settlement & the best apology I can make is to pay the interest, which I always will do on overdue accts. I have had an acct of $1500.00 due since last June on which I have just rec'd $100.00 with the promise of more soon.

Trusting you can make your accts tally with mine
